

Architect: Regan Johnston NZIA, Mason & Wales Architects (Dunedin)
Interior designer: Sarah Johnston
Builder: Scott Johnston
Kitchen designer: Regan Johnston
Cabinet company: Firman Joinery
Cladding: Western red cedar from Herman Pacific
Roofing: Longrun Colorsteel Maxx
Tiling: Tile Warehouse
Flooring: Kareila from Flooring Centre
Paints and varnishes: Resene
Lighting: Lighthouse
Doors and windows: Architectural Suite from Ellison's Aluminium
Window and door hardware: Ellison's Aluminium
Louvers: Breezeway from Ellison's Aluminium
Blinds: New Zealand Window Shades
Fireplace: Jetmaster; Metro Mega
Audio visual: Denon
Speakers: Polk Audio

*Story by Charles Moxham
 Photography by Jamie Cobeldick*

More images online at trendsideas.com/nz2803p26

Above: Large sliding doors on the east side of the house admit the morning sun. The stone fireplace mantel provides a material nod to the rocky coastal setting.

Right: Two-way sliding doors on both inner walls of the outdoor room can turn the greater space into an open-air volume. Uplighters and downlighters ensure ambient light play on the feature clapboard-like ceilings.

